often, and with vigor for 20 years he was clerk and book-keeper in Mark Jeff's store, one of the first stores in Heber. He was Mark Jeff's right hand man. He worked with Pres. William H. Smart and Joseph R. Murdock in establishing the Heber Mercantile Company; and was secretary and treasurer from the time it was established until his death. He was also a director of that institution. He was a man of sound judgement and Joseph R. Murdock said of him, "If I ever wanted council on any business propositions, I always went to Bishop Duke, as I regarded his judgement as very valuable." He served as a director of the Bank of Heber City. Bishop Joseph A. Rasband, Manager of the Heber Mercantile said Robert Duke was his best advisor in matters pertaining to the store. He was prominent in the building of the Heber Social Hall, a building built by the three wards of Heber. He had charge of the work much of the time it was being built and was the largest donator on the building.

In about 1895, he quit working for Mark Jeffs and began to work on the farm out in Daniels. He bought 120 acres of school land which was mostly covered with sage brush and full of rocks. With the help of his boys, the ground was broken up and seeded down in a few years. Robert Duke and James J. Howe planted the first apple orchards of any size in the valley, both orchards each being about 12 acres. Under his administration the white brick First Ward Chapel was built. He served as president of the town board from 1900 to 1902. He also served three terms as city councilman. In 1908 he was named on the executive committee to manage the building of the Heber Light and Power Plant. He was county treasurer for two terms. He was a leader in both civic and church activities. He was a very kind and loving man, and a very good man. He passed away suddenly of a heart attack on 15 Oct. 1920 at the age of 63.

From his diary, we read the following excerpts concerning his visit to Tennessee, to see his mothers kin folk:

Friday, May 22 1891 - "Pass Granville, Jackson Co. go 10 miles to Uncle Jefferson Boyd's. Kindly received by Aunt Polly. Uncle Jeff died suddenly two weeks ago. Grandma had wrote to them that I was coming to visit them. I feel at home Aunt Polly is much like Grandma."

Sunday, May 24 - Met Uncle Moses Jared, Grandma's only brother. Go home with him, I like him. Go to Sunday School with him, meet some of my second cousins. Stay at Uncle Moses.

Tuesday May 26 - After breakfast we go th Uncle D.H. Nichols, his wife, Aunt Betsy, grandma's sister. They make us at home. They have a big family all married. John and Brice Methodist preachers and Clinton Roy, Pet and three or four girls married. They are all nice folks and very much resenblance to our folks at home. John Nichols arrived from Nashville, a circuit preacher. He is rabid against Mormons. He spiritualizes the scriptures greatly.

Thrusday, May 28 - I go the the old place where my Mother was born. The house is occupied and is just the same as when they left it 40 years ago. My grandfather had done the work. Today I cut my initials on a beech tree just under my grandfathers where he had cut his 45 years ago. Go to Roy Nichols for supper and stay all night. He looks like Uncle Brigham. His children make me think of mine. One is just like Pratt.

Thursday, Jun 3 14 - After dinner we go with Uncle Moses to his son Peter's pass the grave yard where Mother's sister next to her is buried. My grandfather placed a stone with her initials M.B.Y. (Miriam Bryne Young) when he left here. We go to Uncle David Nichols and stay all night.

Friday, June 5, 1891 - This morning I bid Aunt Betsy and family good bye.

Sunday, June 7 - Go to Pleasant Grove Church Sunday School at 11. Preaching by Mr. Ford, Methodist preacher. Good practical sermon.

Monday, June 8 - Stay at Mr. Young's till 2 p.m. We help them pick cherries and have all we want to eat. We go 12 miles to Williams Cross roads Smith Co. We crossed Cumberland River on a ferry. Rained two or three hours and we got very wet and wade creeks with our shoes on.

Tuesday, June 9 - 7 o'clock we start North walk 22 miles."

Thus ended the visit of Robert Duke to his folks in Tennessee in 1891.
